Application for Ph.D. Fellowship Renewal

There are three sections to the renewal application:

- Student section
- Faculty assessment
- AFRL research sponsor feedback and recommendation

(All three sections are required. Missing information will disqualify the application.)

All three sections must be submitted to the DAGSI office no later than 5 PM Friday, March 24, 2017. The student and faculty sections should be submitted as one package. The AFRL section may be submitted as part of the package or sent separately. Submissions may be emailed (edownie@dagsi.org), faxed (937-781-4005), mailed (DAGSI; 3155 Research Blvd., Ste. 205; Kettering OH 45420), or hand delivered.

Decisions will be made no later than Friday, April 7, 2017.

All renewals require a cost share commitment. Beginning with the 2016/2017 research year, the Ph.D. student stipend is $24,500. Overhead on the stipend is $6,370 (26%). Therefore, DAGSI's maximum contribution has risen from $51,000 to $52,260 per year. The required cost share is one third of the DAGSI commitment, $17,420 for the maximum DAGSI contribution amount. You must submit a new Proposed Budget to reflect these and any other budget changes for your renewal year.

Students and faculty: DAGSI will inform AFRL of this process. However, it is your responsibility to ensure that your AFRL sponsor completes his/her section and submits it on time. Endorsement by your AFRL sponsor is critical to the outcome of your renewal application.
